TRAINING AND EQUIPPING THE NATIONS!

Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. THEREFORE GO AND MAKE DISCIPLES OF ALL NATIONS..."

Matthew 28:18-19

THE PHILIPPINES

Pastor Emily and Lady Leaders

Pastor Emily celebrated 25 years of ministry in the Philippines with a leadership conference. We ministered and taught on healing, deliverance, vision and God's favor. They were greatly encouraged and we have plans on going back later in the year for training on planting bible training centers.

Why Do You Choose Something? Youth Camp Meeting, Dugapan, Philippines

This is really cool! My new friend Jason and I were getting ready for the last session at the youth camp meeting in Dugapan, Philippines.

He was scheduled to speak and while hanging out resting the Holy Spirit gave him the title of a message he knew a little about, but not enough to preach on it. It just so happened I had a teaching on it with me! It was on the Father's heart of God and Jesus choosing us, not because we are the best and brightest but because God likes us even in our weakness and failure.

So when Jason read John 15:16 in my notes when Jesus told his disciples, "You did not choose me, but I chose you," I asked him "Jason, so why do you choose something?" When he responded "because you want it, you like it," the revelation that God liked him hit his spirit in a fresh and new way.

He then took my teaching notes and preached that to the youth that evening. When he asked the youth that same question the same revelation of God's acceptance and "liking" them even in their weakness also hit their hearts.

A spontaneous, joyous celebration of God's love erupted with worship and dancing. Jason later said he had never experienced such an outbreak of joyous celebration among youth in all his years of being a youth leader!

HEALING TESTIMONIES

"Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy." Rev 19:10

For a long time I never really understood what this meant. I heard preachers quote it, but I just didn't get it. I do now though. The Hebrew root word for testimony (Strong's 5749 for you biblical scholars out there) means "to duplicate or repeat." So whenever you give testimony of something Jesus has done, it releases an anointing for Jesus to do that again. When God does something for one person, it reveals His heart on the matter and He wants to do it again.

I have noticed in my personal ministry overseas whatever testimony I share when I teach on healing, it seems that's what the Lord predominantly heals during the ministry time. The same thing happened on my recent ministry trip to the Philippines. I had given instructions for the people to gather around each other and pray for one another, but they all began to line up in front of me to pray for them. So I had Pastor Emily tell them I was not going to pray for them, but to go back to their seats and pray for each other as I had taught.

I had given testimony of an inmate's back being healed when I prayed for him in the chaplain's office several years ago. His back literally moved twice and then popped into place when I laid my hand on his back. So guess what most of the testimonies were that session? Yep, the Lord healing backs!

Praying for One Another

Pastor Emily's husband Joe prayed for their worship leader who had been experiencing excruciating pain in his back. Nothing happened the first time he prayed, but then he prayed a second time for him. And this is where many believers miss it. They pray once and nothing seems to happen so they don't pray anymore. I had instructed the people to pray again, and again!

So Joe prayed again (for the first time ever) and the Lord gave him a word of knowledge to pray this time in the name of "Jesus of Nazareth." Well, that's when the heat and fire hit this worship leader, went down his back to his hips and he was instantly healed! Many more experienced the healing power of God in those meetings. Praise Jesus for His mercy and goodness!

Rejoicing in the Lord's Goodness!

I've Heard This Before, But Today I Heard It!

One of the blessings of missions is making new friends with other team members. It seems that every trip I have been on the Lord has used me to minister to others on the team. Such was the case again on my recent trip to the Philippines with Jason. He's an anointed worship leader and I was so blessed by getting to know him and his heart for missions. After my teaching on healing and deliverance, he approached me and said, "You know, I've heard this before but today I heard it!" Here is his testimony of being healed:

"After sitting through Jack's teachings on healing, deliverance and the authority we have in Christ, my spirit was challenged. He was able to teach these powerful principles in a way that seemed to bypass my head and go straight to my heart. Something shifted in my thinking after being confronted with the uncompromised biblical truths.

I have dealt with a dull, gall bladder pain for the last year and a half. The pain became an issue of distraction and concern. I thought it had to do with diet or stress and I just accepted it. But I began to apply the practical steps Jack taught of praying for the sick on myself! I spoke to my body and gall bladder and commanded it to be healed. The pain left, but moved to the other side of my stomach! So I laid my hands on that pain again and commanded it to leave. Then the pain went to my shoulder! At this point it was comical, but I then shifted my focus on my shoulder and then just as quickly as it went to my shoulder the pain left.

Later that morning the pain came back in my gall bladder. I was sharing with Jack what had happened and so we decided to pray again for healing. And as Jack was praying over my gall bladder I saw in my mind my gall bladder having a hardness, but it was being scraped off by the Holy Spirit. So we continued to pray. The next picture I saw was two hands applying oil on it and then the hands rubbed my gall bladder and that which was callused and hard became flesh and

Healing from Grief

It seemed Elise just could not get over her grief. As a young girl she thought it was normal to grieve over the death of a strangers . Thirty years later when her husband died, it seemed almost unbearable at times. She was exhausted and felt like she couldn't get all the grief out. Then came all the guilt for not grieving enough, for not missing him enough and possibly for not loving him enough although she did love him and missed him greatly.

At a fun spirit filled New Year's eve party, she felt the time had come and had made a decision to remove her wedding ring at midnight. When we prayed for her the HOLY SPIRIT moved over her in an incredible way! She writes, "I felt lighter, like a huge boulder was removed from my chest. I finally felt free! I had been delivered from a spirit of grief that I later realized had been on me since I was a child. Since that night, I haven't had any more sadness, no tears and no mourning! It feels so weird and so amazing to be free from this lifetime of grief! Thank you JESUS! Praise GOD for His love and equipping His people to discern things in the spiritual realm that most of us do not see or understand!"

soft! Then the pain left and never returned. Praise God!"

Golf Anyone?

Archie is a very special and unique friend of mine, it seems he knows everyone! Several years ago he had a back condition that kept him from playing golf with business clients and associates. That's a big deal if part of your livelihood depends on it! The Lord had healed and delivered him from a very painful, lower back condition when I prayed for him several years ago. Is the Lord interested in such things? I believe he is. So when his friend Mark found himself in a similar situation, he gave me a call. I was out of town on a ministry trip but since there is no distance in the spirit we did a three way call and prayed for him over the phone. All three of us were in different states and I had just pulled up to a golf driving range with a pastor friend of mine!

I just received this report from Mark, "I didn't have a bright light experience or some other physical manifestation, just the ability to do life as I think a regular 40 year old guy would do starting the very next day and since then I've done things I typically couldn't do. Golf two days in a row, bike on the third." Guess what? Mark and I are now friends and we haven't personally met yet! Praise the Lord Jesus Christ!
